HIS VERSION

I only catch a portion
Of what she has to say,
She waits until I'm out of sight
Or far enough away,
Then starts a conversation
Expecting me to hear.
By then I'm out of earshot
And say "What was that my dear?"
"ARE YOU GOING DEAF?" she says,
Knowing very well I am.
But sometimes I pretend

By putting on a sham.
She's got this bloody mega horn
Which drives me around the bend,
I can't deny I didn't hear
And didn't comprehend.
She says I talk to loudly
I never think I do.
But troubles will be doubled
When She is hard of hearing TOO.
